"Releasing The Potential Within All"

We had a great awards assembly this week as we normally do on Friday. However, far from normal was an amazing achievement by Charlotte-May H who won a national poetry writing competition on the theme of road safety. She read out her winning entry and was presented with her i-pad prize by the road safety officers for Essex. We are really proud of her and it was lovely that her mum was able to appear as a surprise guest to see her receive her prize. Well done Charlotte!
