“Releasing The Potential Within All”

Welcome everybody to this week’s newsletter!

Year 6 Assembly

Year 6 treated us to a fabulous, thought provoking assembly that also had lighter moments of great comedy. The dance choreographed and performed by the children on the theme of conflict, as portrayed in the Boy in the Striped Pyjamas’ novel, was beautifully and powerfully done. The comical Dad’s Army sketch took some of us on a trip down memory lane and the sketches about rationing, evacuees and cooking during World War II were terrific. The children sang extremely well and we all thoroughly enjoyed what was an excellent showcase of their learning this term.

Year 6 went to Duxford Air Museum today and Year 3 had an interesting tour and workshop at St Mary’s Church. More about these next week!

Parent Consultation

Thursday, 1st and Monday, 5th February

Just a reminder that parent consultations are next Thursday and the following Monday. If you have not returned a form, one can be obtained at the school office.

Please feel free to look at your child’s work either prior to your appointment or afterwards. All consultations will take place in the hall.

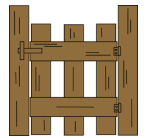

Gate Access – for EYFS children

The gate for the Reception class is to be used only by Reception class parents.

This is an OFSTED requirement to safeguard the youngest children in school.

Year 1 come through their classroom door.
Year 2 to Year 6 must enter through the door by Year 6 in the morning

Thank you for your co-operation.
